

Sydney Alexander Technique

Quality Assurance, Evaluation and Continuous Improvement

Sydney Alexander Technique training programs are delivered with control and oversight provided by Training Director Greg Holdaway.

Sydney Alexander Technique is committed to continuous improvement in its practices. This is intended to enhance performance, achievement and student engagement and is achieved via a systematic process of evaluation based on client feedback.

Review and evaluation are conducted via anonymous student survey, currently developed online at the Survey Monkey service.