

Sydney Alexander Technique

Work Health and Safety policy statement

Sydney Alexander Technique recognises its moral and legal responsibilities under the NSW Work Health and Safety (WHS) legislation 2011 to provide a safe and healthy work environment. This commitment means that we will:

- provide a safe and healthy workplace and working conditions for all, including employees, contractors, customers and visitors
- provide training to enable all employees to work safely
- comply with all relevant legislation and industry standards
- consult with staff and contractors where relevant to enhance the effectiveness of procedures
- conduct investigations into all reported incidents
- conduct regular reviews and evaluations of the health and safety systems in place

Employee and Contractor responsibilities at work include:

- take reasonable care to ensure good health and safety procedures are implemented at all times
- identify and support measures to eliminate or minimise unsafe conditions
- assume personal responsibility for their own safety and for those of other work colleagues by always operating in a safe and appropriate manner
